INTRODUCTION

The headlines say "Spain will take half your money." The reality is different.

Spain is not a tax haven, but it is not a tax prison either. With the right structure—specifically the Beckham Law, it can be incredibly tax-efficient for high earners.

THE "TAX RESIDENT" TRAP

You become a Spanish Tax Resident if:

You spend 183+ days in Spain

(Jan 1–Dec 31).

Spouse/Kids

Your "Center of Vital Interests" (Spouse/Kids) lives here.

The Consequence: You pay Spanish tax on your worldwide income.

The Exception: The Beckham Law (see below).

THE "BECKHAM LAW" (THE GAME CHANGER)

This is the single most important tool for Digital Nomads and Expats.

★ The Beckham Law Benefits

The Deal

Non-Resident

Taxed as if you weren't living here

The Rate

Flat 24%

On income up to €600,000

Duration

6 Years

Year of arrival + 5 years

The Magic: You pay ZERO Spanish tax on dividends, interest, or capital gains earned outside of Spain.

tax break

The Deadline:

You MUST apply within 6 months of arrival.

THE "WEALTH TAX" MYTH

Myth

"Spain taxes everything I own worldwide."

Fact

The Wealth Tax has high exemptions (700,000 Euro per person). Plus, regions like Madrid and Andalusia currently offer 100% relief (you pay zero). Unless your net worth is over 3 Million Euro (triggering the "Solidarity Tax"), this rarely affects average expats.

THE US-SPAIN DOUBLE TAXATION TREATY

Double Taxation Agreement

- No Double Tax: You will not pay tax twice on the same dollar.
- How it works: You pay Spain first. Then, you claim a "Foreign Tax Credit" on your US return. Since Spanish tax is often higher, you usually owe the IRS zero.

QUICK DECISION: YOUR TAX PROFILE

- Digital Nomad
Earning 100k+

Beckham Law

Apply for Beckham Law immediately. Pay flat 24%.

- Retiree with US
Pension

Standard Residency

US Gov pensions are usually tax-exempt in Spain (but boost your bracket).

- Business Owner

Careful Planning

Spain hates "Pass-Through" LLCs. You need sophisticated planning.
